RED TRAIL RACING 4 6 HRS OF EL LAGARTO JANUARY 30, 2011

Loyce Harpe Park – Lakeland, Florida 500 West Carter Road

The 9th annual 6 Hrs of "El Lagarto" is back.

Again, we have two different courses to choose from.

A "Red Trail" style course loaded with technical riding or the less extreme "Corporate" course, which has been extended with more single track. Don't forget you video cameras. The potato sack race is the funniest 50 yards in racing as riders hop to their bikes to start the race. Grab some friends for a team or take the solo challenge. Either way, it's gonna be a blast!
